

USDA Commodity Supplemental Food Program

Blue Ridge Area Food Bank is offering a new program to provide eligible seniors with additional food each month. This does not take the place of Meals on Wheels, SNAP, Produce Distribution or any other food source you may currently be receiving. Each box will include: canned vegetables, canned fruit, a protein (beef stew or chicken), peanut butter, hot cereal, juice, pasta or rice, cereal, milk, and a two pound block of cheese.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- Individuals 60 years of age and older
- Individuals whose monthly income is $1,316 or less OR yearly income is $15,782 or less

HOW DO I ENROLL?

- Bring required documents below to Loaves and Fishes the next time you pick up food to sign up!

WHAT DO I NEED TO APPLY for CSFP?

- Proof of identity – Please bring ONE of the following:
 - License
 - Passport
 - Utility Bill
 - Rental Lease
- Proof of Address
- Proof of income – Please bring ONE of the following
 - Social Security Award Letter;
 - Supplemental Security Income (SSI) (1099SA);
 - Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI);
 - Pension or retirement statements (1099R);
 - Pay stub or W-2 forms;
 - Bank Statement
 - Unemployment benefits statement;
 - Income verification through a tenant certification program

This site is an equal opportunity provider